Academic Integrity Process
At-A-Glance

Instructor discovers alleged violation of academic integrity.

- Instructor compiles all supporting documentation.
- Instructor selects a list of possible Academic Integrity Facilitators.
- Instructor notifies student by providing a copy of Form A.

Student and instructor agree no violation occurred. Documents are shredded.

Instructor and student hold Resolution Meeting with Academic Integrity Facilitator.

Instructor determines sanction for violation.

- Admonition
- Zero or F on assignment
- F! in course
- Graduate Students only: Permanent transcript notation and dismissal.

Academic Integrity Forms A and B or C sent to Academic Affairs for processing.

- Student sent official notification.
- Student completes Academic Integrity Education to remove first "!

If first violation

- Student has five school days to appeal.
- No appeal filed, sanction becomes final.
- Appeal filed, case reviewed by Academic Integrity Panel.

If second or subsequent violation

- Case reviewed by Academic Integrity Panel.
- Appeal resolved.
- Student files appeal within five school days.
- Appeal reviewed by Appeals Panel.
- Sustain original decision.
- Remand for new hearing.

Updated 8/2017