Your academic integrity violation could result in additional consequences that include, but are not limited to, the following issues. Please discuss your specific situation and concerns with your advisor, graduate program coordinator, and/or unit head.

Records of Admonitions are kept by the Office of Academic Affairs and could negatively affect the adjudication of any subsequent violations of Academic Integrity that are reported. All academic integrity violations and student conduct violations are entered into the University’s student conduct database and will remain a part of your permanent educational records. Employers and licensing boards as well as graduate and professional schools may request a copy of your educational records. Your consent is necessary for the release of educational records.

Undergraduates

If this sanction drops your GPA below the University’s academic requirements, you could be placed on academic notice, warning, probation, or suspension.

Failure to comply with academic integrity sanctions could result in enrollment holds.

Some colleges and programs require a higher GPA for admission to the program or courses or for continued enrollment in programs or courses.

Multiple academic integrity violations could result in suspension from the University.

Failure to make satisfactory academic progress could impact your funding. Please check with Scholarships and Financial Aid (119 Student Union, 744-6604).

If you are an international student, your visa could be impacted, depending on the outcome and additional consequences. Please check with International Students and Scholars (250 Student Union, 744-5459).

Graduate Students

If this sanction drops your GPA below the University’s academic requirements, you could be placed on probation, No Further Enrollment with Program Consent (NFWPC); No Further Enrollment (NFE); dismissal from the program; and/or, suspension.

Academic integrity violations could result in dismissal from your graduate program and from the University. Please consult your graduate program advisor, graduate program coordinator, or the Graduate College (202 Whitehurst, 744-6368).

Academic integrity violations could impact your funding, including assistantships. Please consult your graduate program coordinator or Scholarships and Financial Aid (119 Student Union, 744-6604) for additional information.

Failure to comply with academic integrity sanctions could result in enrollment holds.

If you are an international student, your visa could be impacted, depending on the outcome and additional consequences. Please check with International Students and Scholars (250 Student Union, 744-5459).
